Congratulations!

Beverly Zoglio Tomao
Representative for Class of 1964
50th Reunion Committee
401 232 3608

Although I was a little tentative when asked if I would be a representative for the class of 1964, I was also excited about seeing my classmates and friends after 50 years! I was so pleased to get positive responses when requesting ladies to join our reunion committee. The camaraderie which began during our high school days just deepened during our many committee meetings. It was as if time had never passed with the conversation and lots of laughter even after so many years.

Deep sadness did befall us during our preparation, with the loss of one of our members, Marjie Calnan DeAngelis. But it is uplifting to recall what a hardworking committee member she was and how her dry sense of humor and jokes, so many times, had us in stitches.

We are grateful for the gift of time that God gave all of us to be together--however short.

Rest in peace dear Marjie.

The church cannot be herself without the woman and her role. The woman is essential for the church. Mary, a woman, is more important than the bishops.

CLASS NOTES AND NEWSANNIVERSARY

Mary Reddington Tasca - '46 - and husband Earl will celebrate 65 years of marriage on September 25. They are blessed with 7 children, 9 grandchildren and 2 great-granddaughters. "I had some great classmates. I just wish many of them would still be with me. Looking forward to seeing some of them on October 19 at Homecoming. Many thanks to Mary Brennan for keeping us informed and all her hard work. Thanks for the newsletter also."

CLASS OF 1963

The Class of 1963 gives a big 'thank you' to Sandi Arnone for starting 2013 reunion efforts well over a year before the final date! She worked endlessly trying to find every classmate. Not only did Sandi do an incredible amount of work for the reunion committee, but at the same time she took care of her very ill 98 year old mother. Love and sympathy is sent to Sandi who lost her mom in September, 2013.

Diana Grady Humphrey - '63 - is the grateful receiver of a heart transplant. Diana who was diagnosed in 1989 waited ten years before receiving her transplant. She feels wonderful, enjoying every day with her family (five children) and five grandchildren. She loved renewing old friendships and making new acquaintances at the 50th reunion last year!

Barbara Smith Anderson - '63 - enjoyed a fifteen day tour to China including Expo!

RETIREMENT

Judith Benson McGinn - '61 - retired as Director of Religious Education (2008) at St. Paul Parish in Foster, RI after 15 years.

RESTING IN PEACE

Fred Crothers, Class of '55 at Providence College, passed away March 6, 2014. He leaves his wife Rita (Gillooly) '55 SXA, daughters, Deborah, Monica and Laura Ansel, son-in-law, Donald Ansel and grandchildren, Ryan and Catherine Ansel.

Faith, Promises and Friends Forever

Like many of our dear alumnae, Carmela (Greico) Moran '64, feels eternally blessed for having had the opportunity to attend St. Xavier Academy where she received an excellent education and the Christ-like faith she deeply relies on to this day. That was valuable to her strength when at the age of 42 she was diagnosed with ALL Leukemia. Carmela's faith, loving brother Michael, his wife Cathy and Carmela's entire family, along with the wonderful professionals at Dana Farber, brought her through those extremely harsh chemo treatments with results of being totally cured.

In addition, Carmela is thankful to St. Xavier's for the forever friendships she made there with Ann (Macchiarola) Johnson, Theresa (Matarese) Santopietro (deceased) and Carol (Langella) Antar (deceased). Their valued friendships provided opportunities for talking things over, laughing and providing nonjudgmental support for those problems that inevitably crop up in life.

At times, suddenly and uncontrollably, good things, including great friendships, do end. Her very dear friend, Theresa, became very ill. She called for Carmela to be by her side that day she passed away. Carmela promised to continue being family to Theresa's son who is mentally challenged (due to loss of oxygen at birth). The professionals told Theresa and her husband to institutionalize him. They refused to follow that recommendation. From infancy, they took care of all his needs at home.

Carmela has kept the promise made to her good friend Theresa. David has worked for many years at Carmela's family-run business, Metro Honda, where he does miscellaneous jobs. He is an endearing person, bringing joy and love to all of his coworkers. David participates in family gatherings and other organized events. Carmela is a true mother figure to him with a promise to be that forever.

The culture of prosperity deadens us; we are thrilled if the market offers us something new to purchase.

In the meantime all those lives stunted for lack of opportunity seem a mere spectacle; they fail to move us. Pope Francis

We pray you will be moved to keep up to date with annual ($10) Membership Dues, needed desperately to defray costs of printing this newsletter. And please help students with the high tuition of a Catholic high school education by donating to the Scholarship Fund. Or, if you are able to do so, consider setting up a Permanent Endowment Fund or Memorial Scholarship in someone's name -- (See pages 4 and 7).

Janice Monaco Pucci, Alumnae Association President, 2013 - 2015

attended Nelson Street School (now J.F. Kennedy) and George J. West Jr. High School. But she always wanted to attend a Catholic school. "I entered St. Xavier Academy as a freshman. I have memories of a tiny room in the convent. In my sophomore year (classical/college division), my homeroom teacher was Sister Mary Marjorie—my favorite. I was the oldest in my class and first to have a driver's license. When the nuns found out that I took my mom's car to school occasionally, they asked if I would drive them to the Mount once in a while. Mom's car was a five-passenger coupe. I recall how Sister Marjorie, Sister Audrey and Sister Emily (who was very tall) very much appreciated those rides even though all were squished into the back seat, garbed in the traditional stiffly starched habits and long black dresses. I had many close friends at St. Xavier Academy, but my closest friend was Janice Pezzullo. I introduced her to my cousin, Richard. They have been married for over 50 years.

"Upon turning 16, I worked at John the Shoeman on Mathewson Street as a salesgirl, which was followed by a job in their office. During that time, they became a national shoe company, opening the first mill outlets throughout the USA. When I decided to go to Bryant College (now Bryant University), they said there would be a job waiting for me when I graduated. That promise was fulfilled when after college I became the boss's secretary. I remained with that company until 1962, when they merged with an Atlanta company and moved their corporate offices to Sharon, MA.

"In 1962 I married the boy next door. We have two daughters. While they were at school all day, I became secretary at my husband's law office and remained there until his retirement. Carolyn Pucci, our first born, is an RN in Boca Raton Regional Hospital Emergency Room. Our second born, Leslie Lancia, (husband, Richard) is second grade teacher at Stephen Olney School in North Providence. I am the very proud grandmother to Richard Lancia Jr., a junior at George Washington University, Sara Lancia, a freshman at Fairfield University and Nicholas Lancia, 8th grade student at Ponagansett Middle School.

"I love being involved in my community, which includes being an officer at the Bonnet Shores Women's Club, and past president (three times) for the North Providence Women's Democratic League. I am a communicant and volunteer at Mother of Mankind Church. Currently I am a member of the North Providence Board of Canvassers. As Chairlady of our 1955 St. Xavier 50th reunion, I coordinated having Mass at the St. Xavier Chapel on Broad Street in Providence. My happy, busy life includes enjoying my family, visiting my sister in Virginia, and meeting with friends in a Hi-Low Jack League and Bingo.

Janice has done a lot more for the Association than she mentions here. She took on the role of President of the Association along with a very busy schedule, not to mention caring for family needs, which unexpectedly came upon her. So, from all of us on the Executive Board --Thank you Jan--we appreciate all you've done to help bring success to the Association!

"As president of the St. Xavier Alumnae Association, I look forward to our meetings, attended by so many faithful board members. I take seriously the responsibilities that come with the duties involved in preparation for annual October Homecomings and raising alumnae funds for our Catholic high school scholarships. The importance of this program can never be underestimated because it assists so many families with the extraordinary expense of Catholic high school tuition today. We have very generous alumnae members who donate to this annual fund on a regular basis. The Association counts on the faithful, annual support of our dedicated alumnae, whether able to attend Homecomings or not. I sincerely appreciate that!"

PERMANENT SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT FUND

Please consider establishing a Permanent Scholarship Endowment Fund in your name or in memory of a loved one. For further information, please fill out the form below and mail to St. Xavier Alumnae Association, P. O. Box 20452 Cranston, RI 02920 (or call Barbara at 401 828 5751) --For one time scholarships, please see bottom of page 7.

I am interested in having more information about establishing a permanent scholarship endowment fund to assist Catholic high school students sponsored by annual dues-paying members of the St. Xavier Alumnae Association.

Rejoicing in the glorious light of God's Kingdom

MORE MEMBER MEMORIES (and GLOBAL EXPERIENCES)

Grace Dubois Ross, (age 86) Class of 1946, attended her fiftieth reunion in 1996 and other Homecomings thereafter. And she is looking forward to attending a Homecoming celebration in the near future - perhaps as near as 2014! ----After graduating from St. Xavier's she spent a few months at Pembroke College. "I was too young--too immature and not ready for college." That didn't keep Grace from exploring and doing fantastic things in life. Next she worked for the telephone company (for ten years). While there--and still a young, single girl, she decided to take a year off--with a strong longing to travel to Morocco. "Thanks to my learning French at St. Xavier's, along with my desire to travel to Morocco, I was asked by the company and government to be a representative, traveling to French North Africa to observe different telephone companies." Grace accepted the challenge with a reward of having her visa and entire expenses covered. She enjoyed many countries including Libya and ending in Egypt where she spent time in Cairo. "In all of these travels, I met wonderful people. I still have a newspaper from Cairo. Because it's in pure Arabic, I don't know a word it says. My picture is on the front page dancing with an Indian man. With time, I met a wonderful Saudi Arabian man, the same age as I. After I returned to RI, I got a call from him, asking if I would meet him in New York, as he was a bit apprehensive about being there. He was in awe of NYC, its busyness and tall buildings. He was a wonderful man, but unfortunately our two religions--his Muslim and mine Catholic-- did not make for a viable marriage. He got a job in Washington as a Consulate, eventually becoming the Saudi Arabian Ambassador for America. "

Grace met her husband on a blind date (he passed away four years ago). They had two sons. During that marriage, the family traveled to Portugal. Although their marriage lasted ten years they continued to have a wonderful, amicable family relationship.

Not one to give up her wanderlust, Grace decided to take her boys to Spain--at this time their ages were approximately ten and eleven. They remained in Spain for a year at a hotel in Malaga. Eventually she bought an apartment in Nerja, which she had for thirty years, with her boys going to school there until they were in high school. Her sons are tri-lingual, speaking Spanish, German and Arabic. One of her boys is a principal in Florida and the other, living with Grace, is an insurance agent. She has a grandson, just graduated from Boston College and a granddaughter, just graduated from East Hampton High School in Massachusetts.

Grace loves the education she received at SXA. She may feel that she didn't have the 'maturity' to finish Pembroke. But young ladies who graduated from St. Xavier Academy received what they needed educationally and spiritually, not only to make the right decisions in life, but also to follow whatever they chose to do in the world. Grace proved that!

Mary Wilson Nooney, (age 90) Class of 1941, married John F. Nooney, in 1948. At that time, she was also attending Bryant College in Providence while John had duty at Quonset Naval Base. In 1949, he transferred to the US Army. Their first tour was to Tripler Army Hospital in Hawaii, where Mary received a Bachelor of Education from the University of Hawaii. From 1953-54, she taught high school in Honolulu. Thereafter, Mary taught in all the places they lived, including San Antonio Texas, Washington, DC, and Germany. From 1942-45, she served in the World War II Women's Army Corps and then stayed in the WAC Reserves from 1949-68, all concurrent with her teaching assignments. Their last duty station was at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital in Aurora Colorado, where she received a Master of Education degree in Secondary Education at the University of Colorado. She has lived at the same Aurora residence since 1959.

In 1966, they adopted their first son, John F. Nooney II (with whom she lives) and in 1971, they adopted their second son, David (both as newborns). John is now 47 years of age. David passed away in 2009 at age 38. In 1980, Mary lost her loving husband after brain surgery, which resulted from a 1945 duty (involving the Atomic bomb) while serving on the USS Haven Hospital that stood by at Operation Crossroads.

Mary regularly attended St. Xavier Homecomings when she made annual trips to RI. She wants the Alumnae Association members to know how so very lucky she was to attend what may be her last Homecoming (2012). (Although she thinks her attendance at the October 2014 Homecoming is a possibility!) She loved taking part in the Mass and enjoyed the beautiful luncheon at Quidnessett Country Club. Mary says that she has had a 'good 90 years, with 72 years since graduating' from St. Xavier Academy. She wishes all of us the 'best of everything'. And, she is very happy that St. Xavier Academy has an Alumnae Association!

Catherine Joyce Sullivan, Class of 1961 - A Story About Our Statue --- More than fifty years ago when I was a junior at St. Xavier's, I saw a pin in Tilden Thurber's window that I loved. Tilden's was one of the better jewelry stores in the city. The pin was not the usual large cameo of a Greek goddess, but a slim and delicate oval cameo of Our Lady. For weeks, I made special trips to that window to admire it. One sad day, the pin was no longer there. Life went on, but only barely; I was not consoled. My habit of stopping by Mary's lovely statue in St. Xavier's courtyard continued through the barren days of February and the bitter winds of March, but somehow my Aves were empty and my heart remained bleaker than the weather. I distracted myself with more novel reading than school studies and prayed for Mary to intercede for me and make me not want the pin anymore. I knew that my mother was right and that Mary would have agreed with her. It was wrong to want a thing so much when I knew that I was well blessed in so many ways. ---- With spring came my seventeenth birthday. My parents and I went out to dinner at Johnson's Hummocks. Mom and Dad gave me a card with money to buy a new dress and then presented me with a little velvet box. It was not the pin from Tilden's, but one very similar and unbelievably more delicate and more beautiful. I had not words, just opened-mouthed awe. Immediately I pinned it to the lapel of the navy suit I was wearing. Never much for jewelry, I wore that cameo both as pin and pendant for many years. It became my habit to touch it frequently. Without saying it or even thinking, I was praying.

Not long ago, I gave the Madonna cameo to my niece Andrea on her fiftieth birthday. Andrea is a 1978 graduate of St. Xavier's. Knowing her prayerfulness, I'm sure she paid her share of visits to that very same statue that I loved. Hopefully, in years to come, she will pass it on to her daughter, Katie, who is my Goddaughter. Also hopefully, each of them in turn will form the habit of touching the pin as they wear it and the Aves will go on.
